Early Years Practitioner

Pen Mill Infant and Nursery School is seeking to appoint a caring, enthusiastic and dedicated Early Years Practitioner to join our committed and supportive team.

The successful candidate will provide a consistently high standard of care and education within our safe, nurturing and stimulating Early Years environment. They will play a key role in supporting children to learn and develop through high-quality interactions, enabling every child to thrive and achieve their full potential.

The role involves promoting and supporting all areas of the Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS) curriculum. You will actively engage with children in their learning, observe their progress, and accurately record, assess and plan for their next steps to ensure every child receives the best possible start to their education.

You will also undertake the daily responsibilities associated with working in an Early Years setting, including supporting children's personal care where appropriate, promoting their health, safety and wellbeing, and contributing to a positive, inclusive and stimulating learning environment.

We are looking for someone who:

- Has a secure understanding of the Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS).
- Is passionate about helping young children learn through play and exploration.
- Builds warm, positive relationships with children, parents and colleagues.
- Has excellent communication and teamwork skills.
- Is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children.
- Is reflective, enthusiastic and keen to contribute to the continued success of our school.
- Have a childcare qualification at Level 3.

If you are committed to providing exceptional early years education and would like to become part of our friendly and dedicated team, we would be delighted to hear from you.
